

June 10, 2025 Easy Hike – CoCo Canal Trail Through Pleasant Hill – 10:00AM

Hike Description: We will be walking a northern segment of the Contra Costa Canal Trail. We will start near Gregory Lane in Pleasant Hill. (Street parking is available near the trailhead on Westover Drive.) The walk is mostly shaded, goes through the Las Juntas Park and is separated by Taylor Blvd. We will cross Taylor Blvd. at the stop light at the top of the hill and the trail continues on the other side of the road. We will return the same way should we reach Golf Club Rd., or sooner by acclaim. This hike will be at most 4 miles in length, round trip. (As this is an out-and-back route, we can turn around at any point.) We will meet by 9:45 AM and leave at 10:00 AM sharp.

There is no water or restroom facilities at this location.

Bring: Good walking shoes, water, hat, trekking poles if you use them.

Directions to Starting Point:

1. Take I-680 N and merge onto Contra Costa Blvd via EXIT 49A towards Pleasant Hill.
2. Turn left onto Gregory Ln.
3. Turn right onto Pleasant Hill Rd.
4. Take the 1st right onto Westover Dr.
5. Drive a couple blocks and park on the street near the trailhead.
6. The closest home address to the trail that I could find is 1985 Westover Dr., Pleasant Hill.
7. See map below for where the CoCo Canal crosses Westover. This is our trailhead.

Carpooling: Please self-arrange if you wish to carpool.
